1. Subj. sent to Belg. by Russ. repatriation service in Munich on prop. mission. However, it was reported that he fled, or was sent to the USSR after having stolen personnel lists from an URRRA Camp in Neuenheim. (MEM-4813, 25 July 1952)

3. See MEMA 2959, 2960 of 9 January 1953; MEM-10983, 8 May 1954 and MEMA-11940, 3 August 1954.

From # 2617

Subj. is head of the Belor. National Center. He represented the Center at the BNC Convention held at Binburg, June 12-14 1950.

Subj.'s file at the US DFC reveals he was born February 23, 1907, at Ulembiaty, Wilno, Poland and is of White Ruthenian origin. In '27 he entered the Univ. of Wilno and in '36 was granted the degree of Dr.
Of Slavic Philosophy. He stated that his doctoral thesis "White Ruthenian Elements in Polish Romantic Lit" was highly eval. In '37 subj. recd.
a scholarship from the Polish Board of Education to attend the Univ. of Bulgaria for one year. He returned to Poland in 1938 and accepted a position as secondary school teacher in Subj. stands 5' 10" . Brown hair and eyes; is Roman Catholic.

A CIC report of 4 Oct 1949 disclosed that subj. made false statements of practically all of the major points in his PWS in an effort to hide his past history.
His date of arrival in the American Zone of Germany was May '45 not Apr '45 as stated in his PWS. Also he was not deported by the Germans in Aug. '43 as stated but left BARNOWITZE for Germany in July '44 of his own free will just prior to the entry of the Soviets.

Subj. also falsified his occupation record for the years 1939-45. A truer picture of his activities during these years is as follows: 1939 teacher in a Gymnasium in Suława, Poland; 1940-41 teacher in Nowogródek, Poland; July 1941 to October 1943 mayor of the town of BORISOV, White Ruthenia.
..... Fled to Germany in July 1944 and from Aug '44 until March 1945 editor of the White Ruthenian newspaper RANICA (The Morning) a pro-Nazi, anti-allied publication.

Printed in Berlin under full control of the German authorities. In March 1944 he fled to Eger in Sudeten, Czechoslovakia. Returned to Germany in May 1945 entered a DP Camp in AMBEN, American Zone of Germany.

Jul '45 to Dec '46 subject was instructor in the White Ruthenian secondary schools in DP Camps at Regensburg and Michelodorf, Bavaria. In Jan '47 he became camp leader of the W. Ruthenian DP Camp at Osterhofen and subsequently chief editor of the White Ruthenian newspaper, BACKAUSCINA (The Fatherland) in Apr '48. Had been leading member of the White Ruthenian National Committee since 1948.

Under Nazis, subject lectured at the Sov Pedagogical Institute (Potsdam). Occupied many positions of trust under Nazis. Opinion of the US DPO he an out-right opportunist who changed his politics and allegiance without other thought than personal gain. Rejected for immigr. under Sec. 13 of N. 7A. He appealed no letter, appeal denied.

In Mar '50 subj. a member of the 13-man Presidency of the Senate of the Republic of Belorussia in exile. In May '50 reported from Munich as being the representative of White Ruthenia on the International Committee for Political Refugees.

Subj. spoke at UN Assembly during debate on war criminal resolution adopted on 21 Oct '47 named subj. as war criminal whom UN was wrongfully harboring. Responsible for massacre of many residents of the BOKISOV region during the German Occupation & NINA SLIM confessed his act. tried unsuccessfully to recruit subj.
